What a lovely end to the term! This week we had a brilliant concert from our Rock Steady band members on Wednesday. The children performed brilliantly and really impressed us with their skills and confidence.

We ended the week with a very special visit from the Easter Bunny! He appeared as we sung our Easter song and he joined in with the singing. The Easter Bunny then showed off his skills in jumping as high as he could and also being a little bit mischievous! . Thank you, Easter Bunny, for the delicious eggs too!

A huge thank you for taking the time to complete the parental questionnaires. Our team works incredibly hard to provide the very best education for your child and we really value your views We are absolutely delighted with the results! 100% of parents who responded would recommend us. We are so pleased that the ethos/values and wanting the best for every child shines through. Please take a look at the results below and the comments.
